

DINNER WITH REZA MAHAMMAD AND LE CREUSET

On 29 and 31 May, Reza Mahammad treated DECO readers to an intimate cooking demonstration, preparing a three-course meal using Le Creuset cookware.

Held at the warm and inviting kitchen of the Explorers Club in Franschoek, the venue only added to the evening's perfect atmosphere. Recipes were from the Food Network chef's new book, Reza's Indian Spice.

Guests enjoyed delicious sweet potato cakes with chilli, tomato and ginger salsa. Next was a Panchmeia dahl served with coriander chicken (Murgh Nigiri) and perfectly cooked coconut rice – we all learnt a few tips! To round things off, guests were served beetroot samosas with vanilla ice cream and cardamom.

Lots of chatter and laughter went along with two exquisite wines – a beautifully blended Chamonix Sauvignon Blanc Reserve 2010 and Pinot Noir Reserve 2010. Both wines were the perfect pairing to a delicious and memorable meal.

Readers walked off with bulging Le Creuset goodie bags including a large frying pan and tea set, which were especially appreciated by the two readers celebrating their birthdays!
